New year, new beginnings. I like the start of a new year because it does bring to my mind things that I need to do, or would like to do like exercise regularly, eat a little more appropriately, be consistent with my Bible reading and things like that. It is a great reflective time for me. I hope it is for you as well.

Our meeting together, whether it is on Sunday, Wednesday, or other times we get together serve a similar purpose. When we gather for worship it is a time to encourage each other to put Jesus first in our lives. It is kind of like a new beginning every week. I really believe that is the basis for Hebrews 10:24 & 25, "And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching," (NIV). When we come to worship God, we do encourage our brothers and sisters. What is more, we are encouraged. And, it is easier to resolve to be with the saints more regularly.

When we are in regular contact with Christians throughout the week, we again are encouraged to live appropriately. Scripture says in Hebrews 3:13, "But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness," (NIV). When we are isolated from God's people, the world's influence can more easily get a grip on us. It is easier to lose sight of our goal of being with Jesus.

Let me encourage all of us to take advantage of the opportunities we have to be with God's people whether it is our assembly on Sunday morning, our small groups Sunday evening, our Bible class on Wednesday evening, or the other opportunities to be together such as Teen-Off (for teens of course), Ladies Bible Class, Men or Women's breakfasts, and on and on the list goes. The more we are together, the stronger bond we will have and the greater work for the Lord we will be able to do.

–Love, Gene

Mind Is on Heaven in 2007

Colossians 3:1-3
Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God.
(NIV)
