Tuesday, 2:00, we will have the funeral service for Kennie Montgomery. What a blessing for him. It may seem like cancer was the victor here, but through the eyes of faith we know differently. John writes, "For everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. ⁵ Who is it that overcomes the world? Only he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God." 1 John 5:4-5.

I will miss Kennie. He loved to laugh and tease. He was my tree expert helping me know when and with what to spray my apple trees. If I needed a tool it was likely he had it – "go into the garage and look in such and such corner in a box on the floor" He was fun to work with in the kitchen and always had a story to tell. I would sometimes get confused when he started telling about certain places around here as he would use names for little bumps and knobs seen around here in our landscape that didn't mean a thing to me. But he was patient and would describe things more fully. Certainly we will miss Kennie, but what a comfort there is in knowing he is with the Lord. For him we celebrate. For us we grieve because we will miss him.

–Love, Gene
